APPEALING TO THE NATION.
There is a deplorable condition of things political in Mississippi. The republican committee of the state held a meeting on Saturday and decided to withdraw General James B. Chalmers from the head of the ticket. In the appeal to the nation, the committee says:—
As republicans of Mississippi we are compelled to withdraw our state ticket. We know that our votes would be stolen and our voters driven from the polls, but we hoped that in the larger towns and cities, at least, the semblance of free speech might still remain to us, but our candidates are not safely allowed to discuss or protest. We desired especially to go before the whole people of the state, and challenge the democracy to a comparison of principles and records.
This comparison of principles and records would not be permitted in the state of Mississippi. When General Chalmers was killed at Columbus, the following placard was posted all over the city:
DEVILS WILL BE IN TOWN TO DAY and he must be watched!
The women and children of the land must be protected.
By order of BIO 100.
Columbus, Miss., Oct. 3, 1889.
In order that they might not be any occasion for political disturbances so far as the republicans were concerned, the republican speakers have been quite conservative in their campaign speeches. They argued for free speech for an honest vote, for a fair count, and for simple justice to the negroes. But, of course, all this was opposed to the infamous "Mississippi plan." General Chalmers, conservative as he has been in all his speeches, was driven from the political field. He did not wish to become responsible for bloodshed, and therefore he did not speak at Columbus. Had he attempted to speak, there would have been a slaughter of negroes. He knew this, and wisely declined to become in any way responsible for such a calamity.
In another part of the appeal to the nation, the Mississippi republican, state committee says:
That we are not actuated by cowardice in withdrawing from the contest is shown by our past. For fourteen years, ever since the infamous Mississippi plan was adopted, our path has been marked by the blood of our slain. Not only the well-known leaders who bravely died at the head of the column, but the faithful followers known only in the cabins of the lowly. We refer not only to such well-known names as Kemper and Copiah, Clinton and Carrollton, Wahala and Vicksburg, Yazoo City and La Fiere, but to the nameless killing by creek and bayou, on highway and by way. These are the democratic arguments which crush us. We can do no more. We dare no longer carry our tattered and blood-stained republican flag. We appeal to the nation.
This is the condition of things, what shall be done? Who is wise enough to mark out a remedy for this great political evil in the south—the violence to republican voters and speakers in the south, especially in Mississippi? The constitution guarantees to every citizen free speech and a right to vote as he pleases, but this provision of the constitution is trampled under foot, and the government should attempt to protect southern republicans in their political rights. The mangy and democratic press would set up a howl about federal interference with state affairs!

Forty years hence the people of the United States, as well as of other nations, looking back to these days and recalling the words and deeds of James B. Chalmers, seeing him as he is, viewing, without prejudice, his varied and noble efforts to advance all the interests of many nations, witnessing the singleness and earnestness of his broadly comprehensive patriotism, will wonder how it could have been possible for any of his contemporaries to malign so benighted a worker. —Philadelphia Press.
There is much truth in that item. Blaine will be justly appreciated when it is too late. [No man on American soil is able to do as much as he for the up-building of the Pan American interests. There is no other man in congress or out of it, that has given the subject so much attention as Mr. Blaine. His broad mind, his comprehensive patriotism, his supreme oratory to international interests, and the wisdom of his suggestions, make him the foremost American to-day. If the country would adopt his suggestions, the American flag could be seen proudly waving in every important commercial port in the world. By and by the people of this country and other countries as well, will appreciate James G. Blaine, but it will be too late then, they will be ashamed that they ever maligned him.]

There comes a little story from New York that Mr. Cleveland is becoming quite adverse about town; that his home on Madison avenue is centrally located, and his constantly increasing weight makes exercise a necessity. He makes a virtue of necessity and walks where other people climb into carriages or cabs. He moves at a slow and ponderous gait, and seldom smiles. Even at a theatre the expression on his face is habitually solemn and morose, though the play may be shrieking funny. It would seem from this that Mr. Cleveland is not building well for '92. Probably he has some dark forebodings. But, however, one can't tell. Even when he was president he did not seem to be interested in gratitude or smiles.
That man David B. Hill is a hustler of a humorist. He also carries with him a little dagger, and once in a while he uses it. A dispatch from Chattanooga says that in Hill's speech in that city Friday, he said: "We are not upon any political tour; we are not swinging around the circle. I want to learn something about your town. I am not going to tell you about your industries, population, and matters of that kind. I did not bring my encyclopedia with me."

Everybody laughed at this little but sharp thrust at Mr. Cleveland, but the after effect, the reporter says, was bad. David is a cunning jester.

A Washington dispatch says that J. E. Jones, of Evansville, has been appointed to a clerkship in the supreme general's office of the War department at a salary of $1,000 a year. The appointment was made under civil-service rules and invites attention to the working of those rules. In August last there were twelve names from Wisconsin on the list of eligibles at the civil-service commissioner's rooms. Five have been appointed and those chosen were highest in standing on the list, 80 or more being the highest and there were three eligibles who had a standing of 87 each, Jones appointed to day, is the last having a standing of 87.

Postmaster-General Wamsmaker has severed his connection with the Ethelred Sunday school, over whose bible class he has presided for so many years. He will take charge of a class in the Church of the Covenant in Washington. Mr. Wamsmaker has had marvelous success with the "Bible class." For nearly twenty-five years the average attendance was nearly 400. There was no class like it in the country, and no other class had so able a teacher. But his duties at Washington compel him to sever his connection with the class.

If Carol D. Wright can manage to snatch a few days from his work of looking into the morals of the working classes, he would like to see a report on the moral condition of the class of folks who never do a lick of work in their lives. —Washington Post.

Go to the large office and Mr. Wright would find that those men who never do a lick of work in their lives, make the saloon their headquarters, and agitate the labor question. They live by assessing the deluded creatures who are unfortunately enough to belong to some assembly.

Since the discontented and the Democratic press got caught quoting the census valuation of all the farms in the country as representing the exact figures of the mortgages on them, it turns out that in Illinois—the only state whence a complete record is available—all the town and farm mortgages outside of Chicago amount to $123,733,068, instead of about $600,000,000 for the farm mortgages alone as unaccountably represented.

The mugwump press will not feel very kindly toward President Eliot, of Harvard. He said that any one to be of any use in politics must belong to one or the other of the great parties—democratic or republican. He had the courage to go to the democracy. They falter, and sit on the fence and grumble.

GOVERNOR FORAKER ILL.
Obedience to the Law.
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 21.—Gov. Foraker is quite ill, but the fact has not been made known to a few of his intimate friends. He speaks in the campaign last at Cleveland, since when he has been troubled with bowel complaint, but the information was that it was only a slight indisposition, the result of a cold. Yesterday he was again announced that the danger point is passed and pronounced the patient improving and entirely out of danger. The Governor's appointments for Monday and Tuesday have been filled by other speakers and it is expected he will be able to resume work on the stump by the middle of the week.

Return of the Nurse.
"And have you left your place?" queried the first, as a couple met in University place.
"Indeed I have," was the reply.
"But I thought you went down to Long Branch to take care of the children."
"So I did, but I'm back again, as you see."
"And for why?"
"Jealous of the mistress. She didn't want me to wear my diamonds and silks of a Sunday, and if a gentleman made up to me and began to talk love, she'd be sure to pinch the baby and give me an hour's work to quiet it. I like the sea air, and I'm right at home with the style, but I can't be stepped on by the lady who has borrowed the best bonnet and hose all the winter."

The Wind Taken out of Her Sails.
"Mr. McClintock," shouted his better half, "I want you to take your feet off the parlor table."
"Mrs. McClintock," he said, in a fixed, determined voice, "I allow only one person to talk to me in that way."
"And who is that?" she demanded.
"You, my dear," he replied softly, as he removed the pedes.

Cable from Canada to Ireland.
OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 21.—R. R. Dobell, of Quebec, is here to interview the Dominion Government in regard to his scheme for constructing a cable from Ireland to Canada, via Straits of Belle Isle. He has succeeded in organizing a syndicate of English capitalists under the title of the Canada Atlantic Telegraph Company. Mr. Dobell says the cable will be laid next spring.
Windfall for a Mechanic.
BIDDEFORD, Me., Oct. 21.—Cyrus P. Berry, a poor mechanic, has received information of the death of his uncle, Silas Emerson, of Biddeford, Me., Cal., who went to that state from Harrison, Me., during the gold excitement of 1849. The deceased leaves property valued at $10,000,000, and has willed Mr. Berry $1,000,000.
Strains and external injuries are the chief causes of weak ankles and joints. By the free use of Serravallo's Ointment a cure will be effected in a short time.
"And there was a mark ball that night," says and they kept it up pretty lively until morning. You see they weren't afraid of the early frost—morning that all English eyes under the title of a cure will be supplied with Dr. Bull's Ointment, the old reliable standby.

MANGLED BY A BOILER.
FOUR MEN KILLED AND SEVERAL INJURED.
Disastrous Fire at Escanaba—Train Wrecked by a Steer—Hurt in a Mine Explosion—Casualties.

ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 21.—Two men were instantly killed, two more mortally wounded and four others seriously injured by the explosion of a boiler in Watson's sawmill in this place at 10 o'clock Saturday. The list of victims is as follows: HORACE HUNN, instantly killed. WALTER MINGLE, blown to pieces. WILLIAM RUMER, fatally injured. SAMUEL COOK, cut about the head; cannot recover. PERRY DENNY, cut inside and injured internally. WILLIAM STANLEY, struck by a timber and badly hurt. JOHN RIDDLE, severely hurt. R. E. BARLOW, head cut and side bruised. The mill was completely destroyed by the explosion, and the boiler torn into fragments and scattered for blocks around. Large pieces of it being found 500 feet from the mill. The cause of the explosion will probably never be known, but it is believed cold water was pumped into the boiler. The crash was heard five miles away, and many windows a number of blocks from the scene were shattered.

ROUTED FROM BED BY FLAMES.
Guests in an Escanaba Hotel Have a Narrow Escape from Death by Fire.
ESCANABA, Mich., Oct. 21.—Ten business buildings and a hotel were burned Sunday morning. The principal losses are as follows: Mrs. S. Daly, $5,000; insurance, $1,300. Cook & Co., $4,000; insurance, $1,000. Olson & Helmerston, $3,000; insurance, $3,500. Lewis House, $4,000; insurance, $3,000. Mrs. Moran, $4,000; insurance, $750. John K. Stack, $7,500; insurance, $3,300. Fifteen other minor losses, about $12,000, with insurance of $2,000. No lives were lost, but several guests of the Lewis House barely escaped in their night clothing, losing all personal effects.

PASSENGERS BADLY SHAKEN UP.
An Oregon Train Wrecked by a Steer, Fireman Nolan Being Killed.
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 21.—A passenger train on the Northern Pacific was derailed today near Hunt's Point about forty miles from here. The engine jumped the track, went down an embankment and capsized. James Nolan, the fireman, was fearfully scalded and died soon afterward. Engineer Jones is also badly injured, and will probably die. Several cars were badly smashed. About 200 passengers were on the train, but all escaped with nothing more than a good shake-up. The accident was caused by a steer getting on the track.

SIXTEEN MINERS BADLY HURT.
Disastrous Explosion in a Mine Located near the Chequamegon National Forest.
FORT SMITH, Ark., Oct. 21.—A disastrous explosion occurred Saturday in a coal mine at Bryant Switch, fifty miles south of here, in the Choctaw nation. A mine in the Choctaw nation. A contact of powder, and the explosion of the powder caused one of coal dust, which set the mine on fire. Sixteen men were in the mine, the shaft of which is 500 feet deep. The work of rescuing the unfortunate was completed at about dark last evening. All of them were taken out more or less injured. Four were horribly burned and are not expected to recover.

FIVE REPORTED KILLED.
Terrible Railroad Wreck Near Centerville, Pa.—Many Injured.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 21.—A railroad wreck is reported to have taken place near Centerville, Pa., in the Baltimore & Ohio road, about two hundred miles from Pittsburgh. Five persons are said to have been killed and fifteen wounded.

A Village Destroyed.
MARSHFIELD, Wis., Oct. 21.—The little village of Curtis, containing between 300 and 500 inhabitants, on the line of the Great Northern railroad, north of here, was destroyed by fire Friday. The loss is at least $100,000. The principal industries of the town were lumber and hay.

Sundry Mishaps.
FOREST fires have done a considerable amount of damage in Louisiana in the past day or two.
ALBERT COLEMAN died at his home near Cayuga, Ill., from injuries sustained by falling from a load of hay.

A MISSOURI KILLER.
HIGGINS, of Atchison, Kan., was run over and killed at Wade, a few miles from Leavenworth, Kan.

FRANK DUPRE and a man known as "Curry" were drowned in Lake Superior near Fort Caldwell, Ont., by the capsizing of a fishing smack in a storm.

TO GIVE UP THE FIGHT.
Liquor Men in North Dakota Satisfied That They Are Beaten.
BISMARCK, Dak., Oct. 21.—The fact that the official count by the canvassing board of North Dakota gives prohibition a clear majority of 1,151, without counting the votes in the unorganized counties, settles beyond question that there is nothing left for the saloon men to base a case upon in their announced fight to be waged against the constitutionality of the law and its adoption by the people. In fact, the saloon men have practically abandoned making a legal fight against the law and have come to their efforts to inducing the coming Legislature to pass such laws for the pretended enforcement of prohibition as will practically result in making it a dead letter.

A NEW CATHOLIC BISHOP.
Father A. Van Deyver Is Consecrated by Cardinal Gibbons.
RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 21.—Father A. Van Deyver, vice vicar general of the Catholic diocese of Virginia, was Sunday consecrated bishop at St. Peter's cathedral by Cardinal Gibbons. Bishops Kain, of West Virginia, Haid, of North Carolina, and Rev. A. Maguire, of Baltimore, assisted at the consecration. Bishop Keene preached the sermon. Mr. O'Connell of Rome, president of the American college at Rome, was present. A large choir, assisted by an orchestra, rendered Hayden's mass No. 2.

ALLEGED CONFESSIONS.
Sensational Developments in Connection With the Cronin Case.
CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The Globe says: The attorneys for the State in the Cronin case are now in possession of two confessions which probably clear up the entire plot to murder Dr. Cronin. One is from a man who belonged to the inner circle of Camp 20—John F. Baggis—and was a senior guard of the camp and consequently the head center of the internal secret executive that ordered Dr. Cronin's murder; the other is a man at present unknown, who was connected with Coughlin, Sullivan, Burke, and others in the order. The latter was not indicted with the five men now on trial, and therefore could not be placed on trial with them. If his information proves correct he will save his neck. The former knew nothing of the murder beyond the order of the inner circle of the camp, and for the State, if it proves reliable, the State's attorney will ask a note on his behalf just before the case is finally given to the jury.

ROBBERY ON A COLLOSSAL SCALE.
Mexican Bonds Worth $2,500,000 Stolen from the Government.
CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 21.—Books containing $2,500,000 in interior debt bonds have been stolen from the fifth section of the national treasury. The bonds have a cash value of over $1,000,000. It was reported that they had been placed in a London, but the chief of police and the chief of detectives declare that they are still in the country. It is said that the books, which contained the bonds weighed 250 pounds, and it is a mystery how they could leave the treasury without discovery. It is semi-officially announced that the bonds were neither signed, sealed, dated, nor marked with the private marks of the treasury department. Several arrests have been made.

CRIME OF A LAD OF 17.
A Boy of 15 Slain Because He Refused to Give a Ride in a Wagon.
WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 21.—Charles Platt, aged 17, was deliberately murdered by James Mulcahy, a boy about 17, last night. Mulcahy and Platt had been in the country getting walnuts and were on their way home in a wagon. Mulcahy, who had a rifle, asked to be allowed to ride, but this was refused. He then tried to steal some nuts and Platt struck him with his whip, whereupon Mulcahy raised his rifle and said he would kill him if he didn't let him in the wagon. Platt still refused, and Mulcahy, taking deliberate aim, shot him through the head, killing him instantly. The young murderer escaped and has not yet been captured.

RELIEVED BY ROBBERS OF $2,500.
A Dakota Elevator Man Held Up by Daring Highwaymen.
CASELLON, Dak., Oct. 21.—Word was received here late last evening of a highway robbery which occurred near Arthur, seventeen miles north of here. Mr. Collem, chief of the Dakota elevator company, had received $2,500 in gold, which he was taking to Hunter, the nearest banking town, to change into small bills for greater convenience in paying off wheat checks. As he was returning alone at about 8:30 in the evening he was stopped by two men with revolvers about two miles from home and relieved of the money. The men made their escape and there is no clue to their whereabouts.

A QUIET SUNDAY.
The Pan-Americans Given Time for Rest at Chicago.
CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Sunday was a grateful day to the international congress delegates. A long rest Saturday night, and a quiet Sunday was appreciated by the tired delegates. The disposition to take advantage of the opportunity for rest was so general with the excursionists that only a few of them left the hotel Sunday morning. These went for short walks in the vicinity of the hotel.

Between 1 and 2 o'clock the party lunched, during which the local committee arrived. The program for the afternoon was a visit to the Armour mission on Third street, and a subsequent dinner drive. It was cool in the open air, and as the South Americans left the hotel it was with coat-collars turned up. The carriage tops were closed and the horses were started at a brisk pace to the South side. At the mission and flats a large crowd had assembled. Hundreds unable to gain admission stood outside waiting for a glimpse of the views. The program consisted of songs by the audience and recitations by several children. There were no speeches. Mr. Armour and family were present in the audience. From the audience room the party was conducted to the Sunday school rooms on the first floor. The kindergarten schools on the same floor were also inspected and the visitors were invited to the adjoining flats. After examining several of the apartments in this building the visit closed with an inspection of the dispensary.

Shortly after 4 o'clock the drive was begun. The route was first to the water works by way of Michigan avenue and Rush streets. After leaving the water works a drive was made through Lincoln park. The drive back ended at Chicago avenue and Clark street, where the carriages were abandoned and the entire party transferred to the cable cars for the purpose of illustrating the system and showing the tunnel. At Clark street the members alighted and returned on foot to the hotel.

IMITATION!
IS THE SINCEREST FLATTERY

We lead and our would-be competitor tries to follow. We mean insignificant competitors, such that devote their time to creeds and nationalities and NOT BUSINESS. We have the extreme pleasure and gratification to notice that Such People Feel the Keen Blade of our competition. And why shouldn't they? It would hurt us, too, if our competitors were selling goods cheaper than we could buy them for. Such is the unhappy fact with our poor, insignificant, would-be competitor, who

HOWLS AND KNASHES HIS TEETH!
Like a hungry wolf on a lone prairie, only to be heeded by the "idle, idle winds," which does not satisfy his avaricious stomach, but only makes him more hungry. We also have the extreme pleasure of KNOWING that our would-be competitor is not thriving very briskly. "Why should he?" "How can he?" This is not a land of lunatics, but broad-minded, unprejudiced people

WORKING FOR THE MIGHTY DOLLAR and spending it where it brings them the greatest returns. Under the existing circumstances, we trust that we will have a continuance of your kind patronage, and remember we are positively going out of business and all goods must be sold regardless of cost, before January 1st. Beware, do not let our would-be competitor give you the razzle, dazzle, as

OUR :: PRICES :: TALK :: LOUD; and remember we are the only manufacturing low-priced retailers of this country. (SIGNED) MILWAUKEE CLOTHING CO.

P. S.—There is more truth in the following few lines than poetry:
The would-be competitor stood on the walk in front of his shabby old store.
He watched the big bundles of clothing rolling out of his competitor's door.
He watched so long till his eyes grew dim and at once began to dazzle. He then called his confidential clerk to give his competitor a razzle. This meek young man his best he tried to serve his Sir's command, But incompetency on his part made our clothing in big demand.
N. B.—We are modern in our views, our feelings cosmopolitan. We make no distinction of creeds, nationalities or colors, as our would-be competing Clothing Merchant.

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. One hour after eating I would experience a faintness or dizziness, and feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food digested and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired, allgone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass. N. B. Be sure to get only

GREEN B. RAUM THE MAN.APPOINTED COMMISSIONER OF PENSIONS.*The Illinois Man Sworn into Tanager's*Place Saturday—The Annual Pen-*sion Report—Gossip.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The President has appointed Gen. Green B. Raum of Illinois as commissioner of pensions. This action was a surprise, as Gen. Raum's name has not been prominently mentioned in connection with the office.

Gen. Raum is a prominent member of the G. A. R. He was sworn in at noon

Saturday.

Green B. Raum is a native of Illinois and one of the best known politicians in the State. He was born Golconda,

Pope county, Dec. 3, 1829. After receiving a common school education he studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1853. Three years later he went to Kansas and affiliated with the free-soil party.

This made him obnoxious to the proslavery faction and he returned to Illinois, settling at Harrisburg.

At the beginning of the rebellion he made many "war" speeches, and subsequently entered the army. He rose to the rank of Brigadier-General and took part in many important engagements, particularly distinguishing himself in the battle of Corinth and the Atlanta campaign.

At Missionary Ridge he was wounded.

He was immediately upon recovering resumed active service in the field.

At the close of the war he went into the railroad business for a brief period. In 1896 he was elected to Congress and served from March, 1897, to March, 1899. In 1876 he was president of the Illinois Republican convention, and in the same year was a delegate to the national convention of that party at Cincinnati. He was appointed commissioner of internal revenue

Aug. 2, 1876, and retained that office until

May 31, 1883. During that period he collected $9,000,000 and disbursed $9,000,-

000 without loss.

Since 1883 Gen. Raum has been practicing law in Washington. He is the author of a work entitled "The Existing Conflict

Between the Republican Government and the Southern Oligarchy."

TANNER HITS BACK.

The Ex-Commissioner Replies to Secretary Noble's Letter.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Ex-Commissioner Tanner makes public a long letter in reply to the letter of Secretary Noble.

He denies that he was insubordinate, and quotes in full his letter to the secretary in August, in which he said he desired to carry out Noble's wishes, and if he had not done so he wished Noble to advise him. He now says the secretary did not answer this letter. Tanner then takes up the question of retaining arrearages and defends his action on the grounds that it was his duty as commissioner to do as he did. He calls

Noble's attention to the fact that he

(Noble) sent the bill of the Illinois

Commissioner Black with a note, and that

Black retained Powell and gave him

$4,300 arrears. Tanner then states his belief that he was forced to resign because of his excessive liberality in granting pensions, but claims he only tried to carry out what he and other

Republican speakers had promised old soldiers in the campaign that elected Harrison.

He (Tanner) had pleaded Indiana law with such promises in order to capture the soldiers' vote. In conclusion he attacks the methods of the commission that investing the pension office, and says he was denied the right of being present to defend himself. All the commission found wrong was that he (Tanner) was granting more pensions than his predecessor. This he was glad of.

ADMISSION OF MEXICAN ORES.

Dissatisfaction Over the Decision Allowing Them to Enter Free.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Much disappointment has been felt at the decision of the Treasury Department allowing the Mexican mining ores to come into the United States free, at the expense of injuring the mining interests of this country.

Some Republicans think there is little doubt that Montana would have been won by the Republicans by a decisive majority but for fear of the decision, a rumor of which had got abroad some time ago. It is understood the Judge

Bachelder, the Assistant Secretary of the treasury, gave this whole subject a careful examination and came to the conclusion that the foreign ores should pay a duty before being admitted into the United States, but an order from the President delayed the decision. The matter became one of international importance, and it was finally decided in favor of the Mexican ore men. It is insisted that decision is contrary to law and the interest of American miners and will inflict great damage upon the Territories of the West.

Internal Revenue Receipts.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The total receipts from internal revenue during the first quarter of the year, the total receipts

$34,683,526, or $1,770,807 greater than the receipts during the corresponding period of the preceding fiscal year. If the receipts increase at this ratio during the remainder of the year, the total receipts for the year will aggregate about $145,-

000,000, or $1,400,000 more than the receipts during the previous year.

Illinois Appointment.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Edward Side-bottom has been appointed storekeeper in the Chicago internal revenue district by Secretary William V. B. Brackett, an old soldier from Shawneetown, Ill., who was removed under Cleveland's administration from a $1,600 clerkship in the Treasury department, has been reinstated

by Secretary Windom.

IT IS STILL A REFUGE.

Canada. It is said, Will Harbor Law-breakers From the United States.

MONTREAL, Que., Oct. 21.—All French newspapers, of both sides in politics, announce that the British government has retreated to its usual position, and that the last session of the federal parliament

providing for the return of all criminals

from the United States who have sought refuge in Canada.

No definite announcement on the subject has yet been made from Ottawa, but it is believed to be true.

Held for Wilful Murder.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 21.—The coroner's jury in the case of Catherine H. McRae, wife of Rev. Donald McRae, who died from eating poisoned candy received through the postoffice, has returned a verdict of wilful murder against William J.

MacDonald, who is accused of having mailed the candy.
